

Become a NAFSA Leader!

As international educators, we have a responsibility to build our skills, knowledge, and networks and lend our talents to advance the field. NAFSA offers you rewarding opportunities for growth and professional development while allowing you to volunteer alongside inspiring colleagues who share your commitment to international education.

Join the many dedicated professionals who volunteer to be NAFSA leaders.

The Benefits of NAFSA Leadership

- ✓ Network with peers at other organizations.
- ✓ Serve as a mentor to others.
- ✓ Gain visibility on your own campus.
- ✓ Build your resume by enhancing your strengths or skills in management, leadership, advocacy, policy, training, coaching, mentoring, strategy, your professional interests, and many other areas.
- ✓ Expand your brand within the profession via leadership training throughout the year.
- ✓ Enhance the visibility of your campus or organization.
- ✓ Assist with the implementation of the NAFSA strategic plan.
- ✓ Receive appreciation and recognition as a volunteer and leader.
- ✓ Access early or complimentary registration for some leadership meetings and events.

Questions? Contact Volunteer Leadership Development and Regional Affairs at leadership@nafsa.org