Suzanne Seltzer named Top Immigration Lawyer

New York, NY February 16, 2011: Suzanne Seltzer Esq., a partner in the immigration law firm of Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer, has been selected as one of the country's leading corporate immigration lawyers by The International Who's Who of Corporate Immigration Lawyers 2011.

Head of the firm's New York Office, Ms. Seltzer is known nationally for her extensive representation of universities, hospitals, research institutions, and their medical and research personnel in obtaining extraordinary ability and national interest waiver immigrant petitions, O-1 nonimmigrant visas, and waivers of the two-year home country residence requirement. Her clients include academic institutions from all over the country, as well as scientists, professors, engineers and physicians from around the world.

In 2010, Ms. Seltzer was appointed to Chair the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) USCIS Benefits & Policy Liaison Committee. Ms. Seltzer is also a founding member of the NY Anti-Trafficking Network, sits on its steering committee, and co-chairs its Legal Subcommittee. In 2002, she received the Cornerstone Award from the Lawyers Alliance for New York and in 2003, the prestigious Samuel E. Klein Pro Bono Award. She is named in the 2011 Best Lawyers in America. A magna cum laude 1989 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Suzanne received her law degree from Georgetown University's Law Center (cum laude) in 1993.

Klasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer, LLP is one of the country's leading business immigration and nationality law firms. The firm has offices in Philadelphia and New York.
